

Kiddie Prayers

A wife invited some people to dinner and had slaved over the hot stove for hours. Later, at the table, she turned to her 6 yr-old daughter and said, "Would you like to ask the blessing?"

"I wouldn't know what to say," the girl replied... "Well, just say what you hear Mommy say," the wife answered.

The daughter bowed her head and said, "Lord, why on earth did I invite all these people to dinner?"

One particular four-year-old prayed. "And forgive us our trash baskets as we forgive those who put trash in our baskets."

Last-Minute Thought

There was a man who was about to be made a chief executive. The Board of Directors talked about it, and it was a "done deal." In the company cafeteria one day, the existing CEO was behind this man in line. Unbeknownst to the man, the CEO saw him take a pat of butter that cost about 3 cents, then put a slice of bread over the butter so that no one would see it. The CEO went back to the Board and told them they had the wrong man. He told them that he didn't have integrity. And for 3 cents the man lost a monumental promotion!

Are we faithful in the little things? Let this be the beginning of a new day of faithfulness in our lives. Remember the little things. God is watching to find us faithful.

Welcome, Rev. Ryan Vanderford, and other guests. We are happy that you are with us today.

One Day At A Time

God wants you to live His plan for your life in these little 24-hour, bite-size chunks called days. The Bible says, "This is the day the Lord has made" (Psalm 118:24)... "His mercies are new every morning" (Lamentations 3:23)... "Daily He bears our burdens" (Psalm 68:19). We're to live out our commitment to Christ by taking up our cross "daily" (Luke 9:23), and our "strength will equal" our "days." The strength you need, the provision you need, the grace you need, the answers you need, the help you need, and the encouragement you need - He's going to send you what you need on the day you need it and not a day earlier. So when you get all worried and fearful about what's beyond today, you're running ahead of your supply lines. You don't have tomorrow's "bread," tomorrow's strength, or tomorrow's grace until that day comes. If you're trying to carry tomorrow's burden with today's grace, you're going to stumble.

So, where is what you need going to come from? From your Jehovah-Jireh, the Lord who provides. How will He supply what you need? Oh, He has so many ways, but you can be sure that, as in Elijah's time of need, God has "ordered His ravens" to deliver it. And when will you have it? You can be sure you'll have everything you need on the day you need it. Until then, your assignment is clear - be where God wants you to be, doing what God wants you to do that day. Oh, and you might want to go open that window. His ravens are on the way.

God's mercies are new every morning.

Laugh If You Wish

The runners in an NCAA cross-country track championship held in Riverside, California came to a turn that was not well marked.

Mike Delcavo knew the way and waved frantically for the other runners to follow him. Only four did. One hundred twenty-three out of the 128 runners took the wrong turn and lost their opportunity to win the race. Delcavo later said his competitors were laughing as he chose to take what he knew was the right way.

Thought: In the spiritual race we're running, we must not be swayed by the size of the crowd when determining the right path.

"Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. ~ Jesus speaking in Matthew 7:13-14

If you find a path with no obstacles, it probably doesn't lead anywhere.
