

No one ever sized up humans more accurately than the fellow who invented the pencil eraser.

The things that come to those who wait may be the things left by those who got there first.

The human brain is like a freight car -- guaranteed to have a certain capacity, but often runs empty.

Flashlights used by my National Guard unit can withstand almost anything. And to prove it, they come with a lifetime warranty.

Nevertheless, nothing is indestructible, which is why the warranty also cautions: "Void with shark bites, bear attacks and children under the age of five."

Slices of Life

Learn from the past, set vivid, detailed goals for the future and live in the only moment of time over which you have any control: now. ~ Denis Waitley

Courage does not always roar. Sometimes, it is the quiet voice at the end of the day saying, "I will try again tomorrow."

"All hell broke loose?" Never! Hell does not break loose. Heaven keeps hell on a short leash, and satan is God's unwilling servant." Remember Who's in control!!

The Faithful

On April 15, 1912, the great its maiden voyage in the frigid Atlantic. Almost a hundred continues to intrigue us. Two Titanic Experience" have Missouri. Artifacts and replicas of the ship's features simulate what that ill-fated voyage might have been like. The finale is particularly poignant. The names of every passenger are displayed on a big wall at the end of the tour. The list indicates whether the person was a first, second, or third class passenger, or a crewman. But no matter what their class, every one of those 2,200 people appear on one of two lists: saved or lost.

ship, the Titanic, sank on waters of the north years later, the tragedy mini museums called "The opened in Tennessee and ship's features simulate what that ill-fated voyage might have been like. The finale is particularly poignant. The names of every passenger are displayed on a big wall at the end of the tour. The list indicates whether the person was a first, second, or third class passenger, or a crewman. But no matter what their class, every one of those 2,200 people appear on one of two lists: saved or lost.

Every person on the Titanic ended up listed one of two ways: saved or lost. Nothing else mattered. Every person on earth, is on one of two lists in God's records: saved or lost. As the last survivors of Titanic slip into eternity, they will be "saved" or "lost" forever. So will all of us. In 1 John 5:11-12, the Bible says: "God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life."

Our eternal destination is all contingent on one thing - whether or not we have the Son of God. Not whether or not we have a good name, whether we have wealth, or even whether we have "religion," but whether we have Jesus. With eternity in the balance, there is no good reason to risk another day on the list that says "lost." --Adapted from "A Word With You" Devotions

From the Word

"Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. (Acts 2:38,39)

"For we are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you are have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ." (Gal. 3:26,27)

Some say, "Go this way." He said, "I am the Way."
 Others say, "Follow these steps to the truth." He said, "I am the Truth."
 Another says, "This is the secret to life." He said, "I am the Life."

The reason the Ten Commandments are short and clear is that they were handed down direct, not through a committee.

What's right is right, no matter how few people do it. What's wrong is wrong, no matter how many people do it.

AMEN!

I'm against sin. I'll kick it as long as I've got a foot, and I'll fight it as long as I've got a fist. I'll butt it as long as I've got a head. I'll bite it as long as I've got a tooth. And when I'm old and fistless and footless and toothless, I'll gum it till I go home to Glory and it goes home to perdition! -- Rev. Billy Sunday

When You Pray....

In fact, prayer is one of the most powerful resources at our disposal. Let's use our resources this week and take these needs to the Lord.

Eyes Forward!

When you see someone swerving in and out of their lanes of traffic, you immediately go into a defensive driving mode. Whether they are drunk, sleepy, or just plain careless...it doesn't matter. You just know that they are dangerous.

God wants us to know the same is true of us when we allow ourselves to wander by and sample every form of temptation available. Let's stick to the straight and narrow with our eyes firmly fixed on Jesus! Eyes forward!
