

A conclusion is simply the place where you got tired of thinking.

Have you ever noticed that the one who is late is always jollier than the one who is waiting for him (or her)?

When it's all said and done, it's the politicians who say it, and the taxpayers who do it.

Nothing is more annoying than having someone repeat word for word what you shouldn't have said in the first place.

A Pearl From the Pulpit

REMEMBER

LIFE IS LIKE WRESTLING A GORILLA.

YOU DON'T QUIT WHEN YOU GET TIRED.....

YOU QUIT WHEN THE GORILLA GETS TIRED!

The struggle exists in three areas. First, we have an internal enemy. Ever since the fall in the garden of Eden, the human heart does not naturally seek after God. But His Spirit can draw us and move our thoughts toward Him. However, even after salvation, we will have the capacity to do wrong as long as we remain in this carnal body. Scripture names evidence of the old "flesh" patterns at work within us, such as immorality, impurity, jealousy, and outbursts of anger (Gal. 5:19-20).

Second, there exists an external enemy: the system of ungodly beliefs, attitudes, and philosophies all around us. First John 2:15 gives a stern warning: "If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him." As believers in Jesus, we should be salt and light to the society around us while not allowing its ways to influence our thoughts or behavior.

Third, there's an infernal enemy—namely, Satan. His desire is to dishonor God and to gain victory over the Lord's kingdom. We know from Scripture that this will not happen, but the conflict will continue until the final days mentioned in Revelation.

Be aware of these three enemies. You wouldn't sleep in the midst of a raging war, and neither should you live without awareness in the daily spiritual battle. Arm yourself with God's Word, and seek His protection and wisdom —Dr. Charles Stanley

Here's a good place to remind you that on Wednesdays, Pastor Sims is conducting an excellent Bible study on "Secrets to Spiritual Strength." Don't miss out!

We mutter and splutter, we fume and we spurt,
We mumble and grumble, our feelings get hurt.

We can't understand things, our vision gets dim.
When all that we need is a moment with HIM.
